Curamericas Global
HOPE THROUGH HEALTH

DRAMATIC IMPROVEMENTS IN MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH IN RURAL GUATEMALA

ORAL SESSIONS

Reducing health inequity through the empowering effect of care groups for marginalized indigenous women living in a male-dominated society

Part of Session: 4040.0: Global Health Actors: Lessons Learned in Policy and Practice
Tuesday, Nov. 14, 2023: 8:30-10:00 a.m. in B208

A mortality assessment demonstrating reductions in death of mothers and children

Part of Session: 5151.0: Afro-Latino and Latin American Health
Wednesday, Nov. 15, 2023: 12:30 p.m.-2:00 p.m. B302

A summary, cost effectiveness, and policy implications.

Part of Session: 2168.0: Community Based Primary Health Care
Sunday, Nov. 12, 2023: 4:30-6:00 p.m. in B406ab

Nutrition-related activities and changes in childhood stunting, wasting, and underweight.

Part of Session: 5036.0: Innovations and Solutions in Global and International Health
Wednesday, Nov. 15, 2023: 8:30-10:00 a.m. in B304

Curamericas Global has saved the lives of mothers and children around the worlds since 1983. We invite you to join us!

POSTER SESSIONS

CBIO+ approach: Multi-layer community-based, participatory health care to reduce maternal and child mortality in the world's "Triangle of Death"

Part of Session: 3079.0: Disparities and Inequities in Global Health Poster Session
Monday, Nov. 13, 2023: 10:30-11:30 a.m. Hall B2-B3

Stakeholder perspectives on strengthening the cbio+ approach as a participatory model for community-based health care in rural Guatemala

Part of Session: 3080.0: Health Systems Strengthening & Service Delivery in International Settings
Monday, Nov. 13, 2023: 10:30-11:30 a.m. Hall B2-B3

Expansion of population coverage of key interventions

Part of Session: 3080.0: Health Systems Strengthening and Service Delivery in International Settings
Monday, Nov. 13, 2023: 10:30-11:30 a.m. Hall B2-B3

ANDREW HERRERA, MBA, MPH
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
ANDREW@CURAMERICAS.ORG

SHAYANNE MARTIN, MPH
BOARD OF ADVISORS
SHAYANNENMARTIN@GMAIL.COM